PERSONAL LETTER - 01

An open letter to the woman reading this.

I am writing to fifty women on the island of Ibiza. Not fifty-one. Not a hundred. Fifty. I have spent the last year building RENTED.live so that the wardrobes that already exist on this island can finally wake up and share themselves - so that residents earn what their closets are worth, visitors look absolutely UniQue-Chic, and the planet gets a little more rest.

But the platform is only the easy part. The hard part is the first fifty women who decide to lend before anyone else does. Who set the tone. Who teach the rest of the island how this is meant to feel - generous, discerning, lit-from-within. That is what Founders 50 is. That is why this letter is in your hands.

If you say yes, you become a Queen of RENTED. There is room for fifty Queens, and only fifty. Each Queen receives a permanent number between 01 and 50 that we will never reissue - it stays on your profile for as long as RENTED exists, and it travels with you to every new island we open after Ibiza.

PERSONAL LETTER - 02

What you get, and only you.

- Permanent Queen #01-#50 crown on your profile - never reissued.
- Code QUEEN[NN] earning you 75 EUR per qualified referral (50% above standard). Cap 500 EUR/mo, 12-month window.
- Your own landing page at [rented.live/g/QUEEN\[NN\]](https://rented.live/g/QUEEN[NN]).
- The Coven - private founders' room, monthly call with me, first look at every feature.
- A Digital Gold Tag on your closet - visible to every renter, like Airbnb's Superhost badge. Permanent while active.
- A seat at the Ibiza Founders Dinner, every June, for as long as RENTED exists.

What I am asking in return.

- Verify your identity (the same KYC every Lender does).
- Accept the Founders 50 Addendum (§25 of the Terms) - including the 12-month, Balearic-Islands peer-to-peer non-compete (§22).
- List at least one piece to activate your Queen profile.
- Optional: if you feel like it, post a single Instagram Story to introduce your page - in your own words. Scripts and tips available on request; never required.
- If a Reel, Story or post tagging @rented.live drives a verified booking, you receive bonus credit or a fee discount. Open to every user, not just Queens.

PERSONAL LETTER - DIRECT LINE

If, after reading this twice, you still feel a small electric yes.

Then write to me. Not through a form. Not through an assistant. Directly, the way two women on the same island would write to each other. Tell me your name, your closet, the version of summer 2026 you would like to be remembered for. I read every application personally; if it is a yes, you will receive your QUEEN number, your addendum, and your Digital Gold Tag - live on your closet that same day.

There are not many sentences in the world that are still genuinely rare. "I am one of the fifty Queens of RENTED" is one of them. I would like it to be true of you.

With every belief in you, and with a perfectly tailored coat,

Q DeRHINO
